

Supplementary file S2

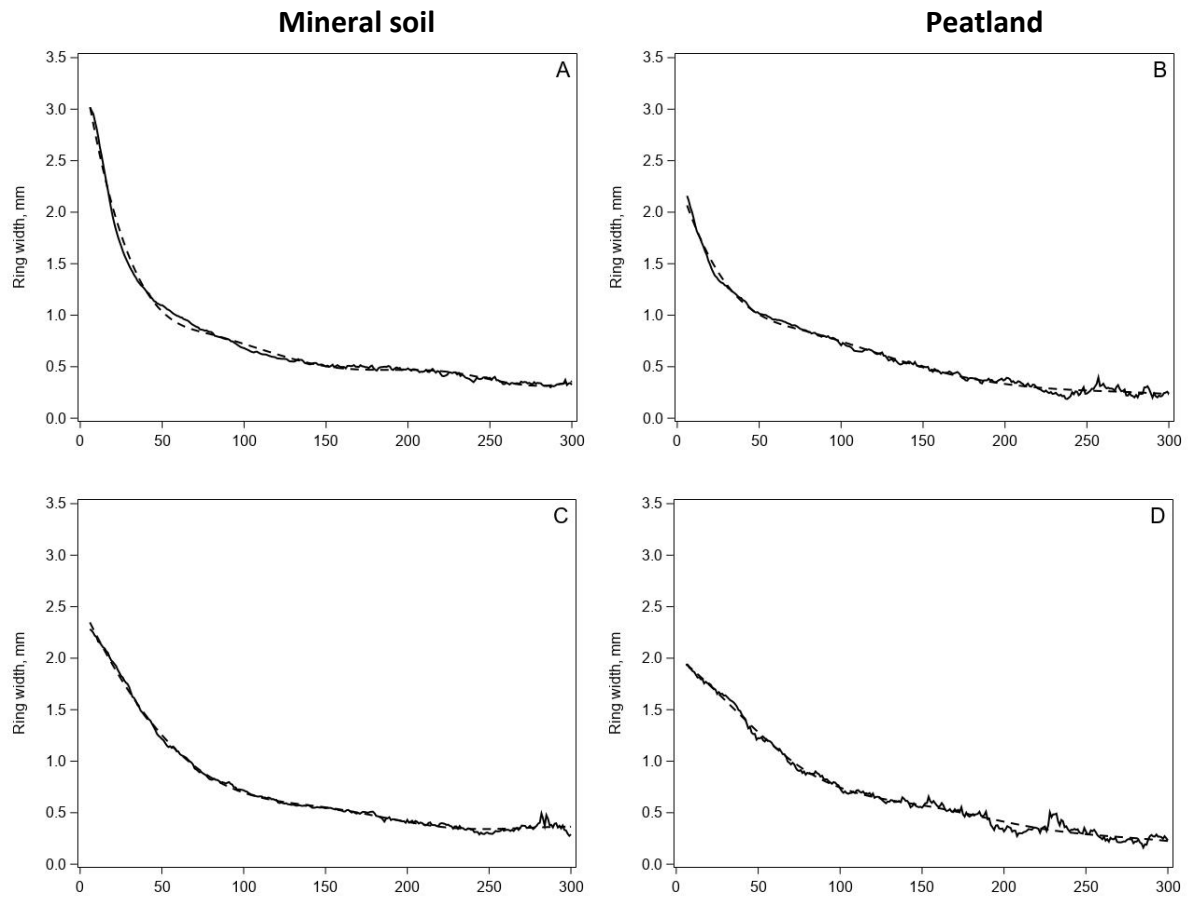

Fig. S2. The regional curve standardisation (RCS) curve was calculated by averaging the tree-ring widths according to their age counted from the pith outwards (continuous line) and the mean of all the series was modelled by a stiff spline (dashed line) for Scots pine (upper row) and Norway spruce (lower row) in North Finland.